A Slump in Jingoism.

The New Age quotes the following from The Worker, the journal of the federated workers of Queensland, Australia, which shows that reaction against the South African war is going on throughout the whole of the British Empire:

"Nothing could be more ludicrous in last week's Federal elections than the defeat of the Jingo. By this time they will have been taught that the people are not such fools as the fool politicians and the shrill, hysterical daily press took them to be. They will have learnt that the people as a whole have no intention of losing sight of domestic legislation, which concerns them intimately, to go hunting after the will-o'-the-wisps of Jingoism and patriotism. The return of Dawson, Stewart and McDonald, all pronounced opponents of the war, and the rejection of men like Thynne, Hamilton and Cowley—patriots of the most rabid order—is a most cutting snub to the pretensions of the loud-mouthed Jingo rabble, whose excessive protestations of loyalty and patriotism for the last year or more have been witnessed with disgust by all honest-hearted men and women in the community. Queensland will have none of that sort as its representatives. The Labor party as a whole has opposed the war, and the Labor party has swept the polls. The people have chosen between patriotic sycophants and grovellers, and men of honest, manly and well-meaning convictions. And they have chosen wisely."

TO THE DEAF.

A rich lady, cured of her Deafness and Noises in the Head by Dr. Nicholson's Artificial Ear Drums, gave $10,000 to his Institute, so that deaf people unable to procure the Ear Drums may have them free. Address No. 4971, The Nicholson Institute, 780 Eighth Avenue, New York, U.S.A.

A FINE GOLD PEN.

To any one who will send us the names of three new subscribers to the ADVOCATE OF PEACE with the money, three dollars, we will send as a present, postpaid, a fine three-dollar fountain pen.

"Human society is a brotherhood, not a collection of warring atoms."

"True workers should be fellow-workers, not rivals."

"The principle of justice, and not selfishness, should regulate exchange."

— Thomas Hughes.

"The province of government is to increase to the utmost the pleasures and to diminish to the utmost the pain which men derive from each other."— John Stuart Mill.

CONSTITUTION OF THE AMERICAN PEACE SOCIETY.

ARTICLE I. This Society shall be designated the "AMERICAN PEACE SOCIETY."

ART. II. This Society, being founded on the principle that all war is contrary to the spirit of the gospel, shall have for its object to illustrate the inconsistency of war with Christianity, to show its baleful influence on all the great interests of mankind, and to devise means for insuring universal and permanent peace.

ART. III. Persons of every Christian denomination desirous of promoting peace on earth and goodwill towards men may become members of this Society.

ART. IV. Every annual subscriber of two dollars shall be a member of this Society.

ART. V. The payment of twenty dollars at one time shall constitute any person a Life-member.

ART. VI. The chairman of each corresponding committee, the officers and delegates of every auxiliary contributing to the funds of this Society, and every minister of the gospel who preaches once a year on the subject of peace, and takes up a collection in behalf of the cause, shall be entitled to the privileges of regular members.

ART. VII. All contributors shall be entitled within the year to one-half the amount of their contributions in the publications of the Society.

ART. VIII. The Officers of this Society shall be a President, Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, an Auditor and a Board of Directors, consisting of not less than twenty members of the Society, including the President, Secretary and Treasurer, who shall be ex-officio members of the Board. All Officers shall hold their offices until their successors are appointed, and the Board of Directors shall have power to fill vacancies in any office of the Society. There shall be an Executive Committee of seven, consisting of the President, Secretary and five Directors to be chosen by the Board, which Committee shall, subject to the Board of Directors, have the entire control of the executive and financial affairs of the Society. Meetings of the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee may be called by the President, the Secretary, or two members of such body. The Society or the Board of Directors may invite persons of well-known legal ability to act as Honorary Counsel.

ART. IX. The Society shall hold an annual meeting at such time and place as the Board of Directors may appoint, to receive their own and the Treasurer's report, to choose officers, and transact such other business as may come before them.

ART. X. The object of this Society shall never be changed; but the Constitution may in other respects be altered, on recommendation of the Executive Committee, or of any ten members of the Society, by a vote of three-fourths of the members present at any regular meeting.
